STONE

The SalesRabbit Voice

Clear: We don't leave room for misinterpretation.
Succinct: Few words best.
Conversational: We're fun to talk to.

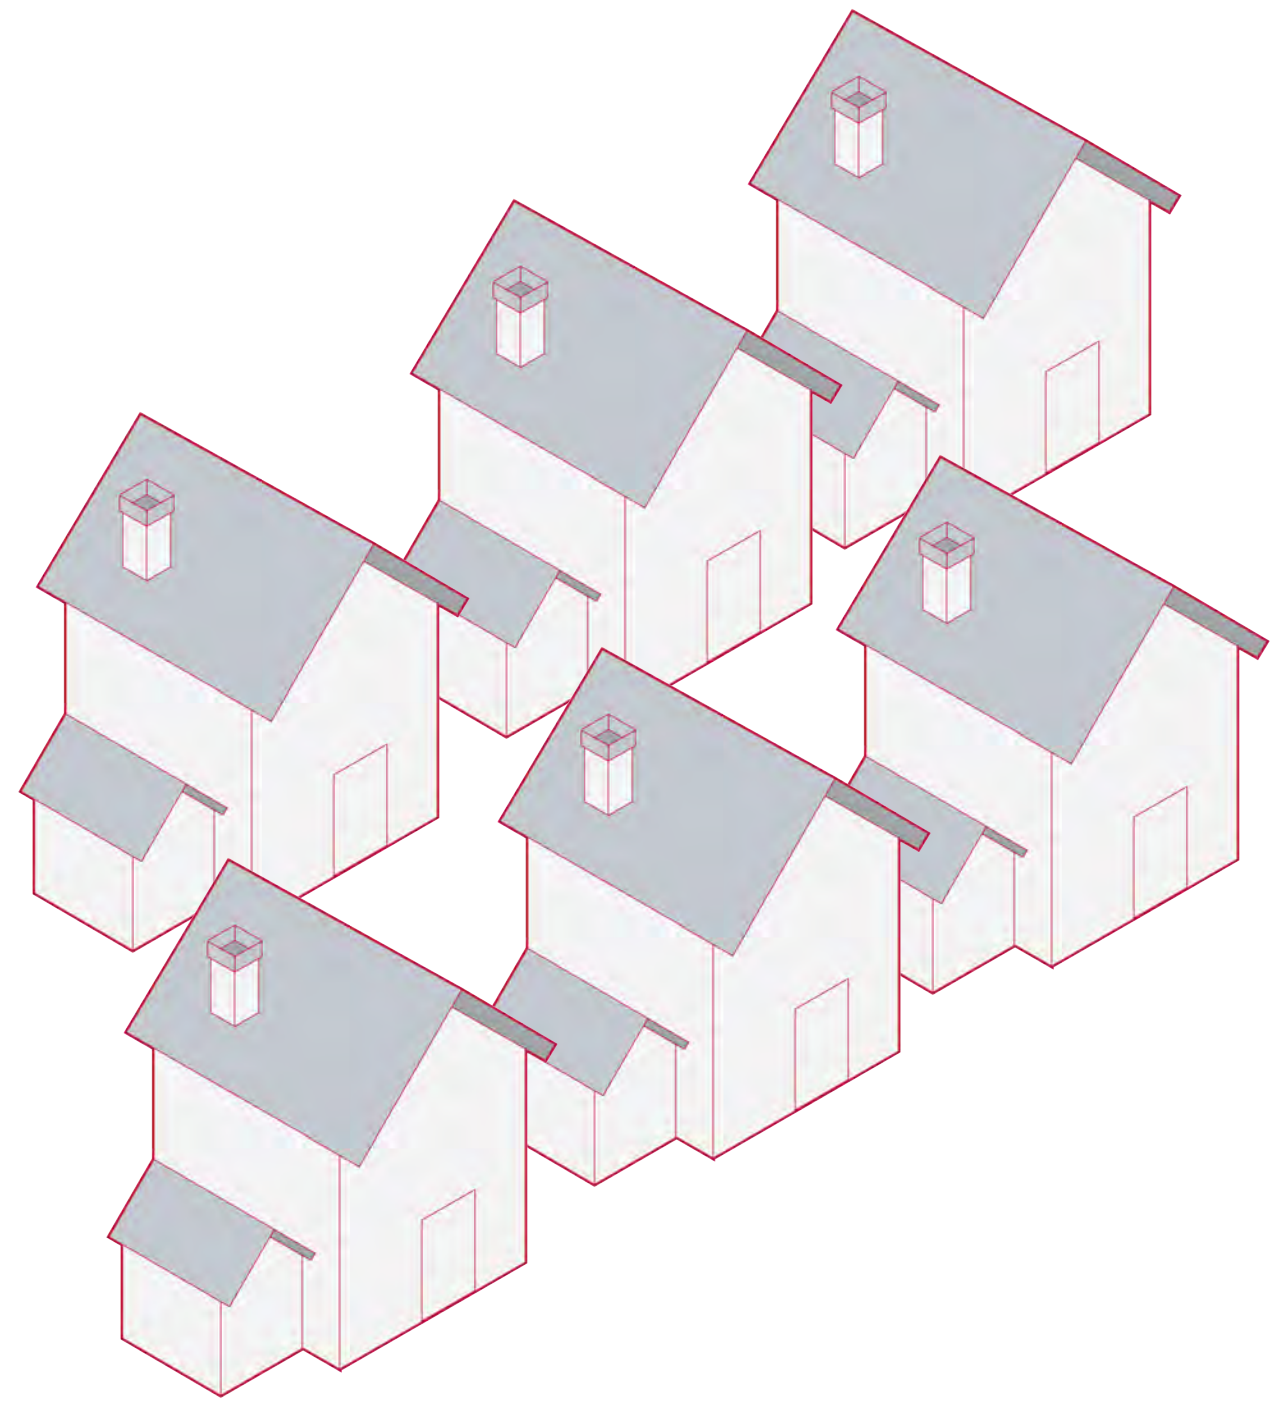

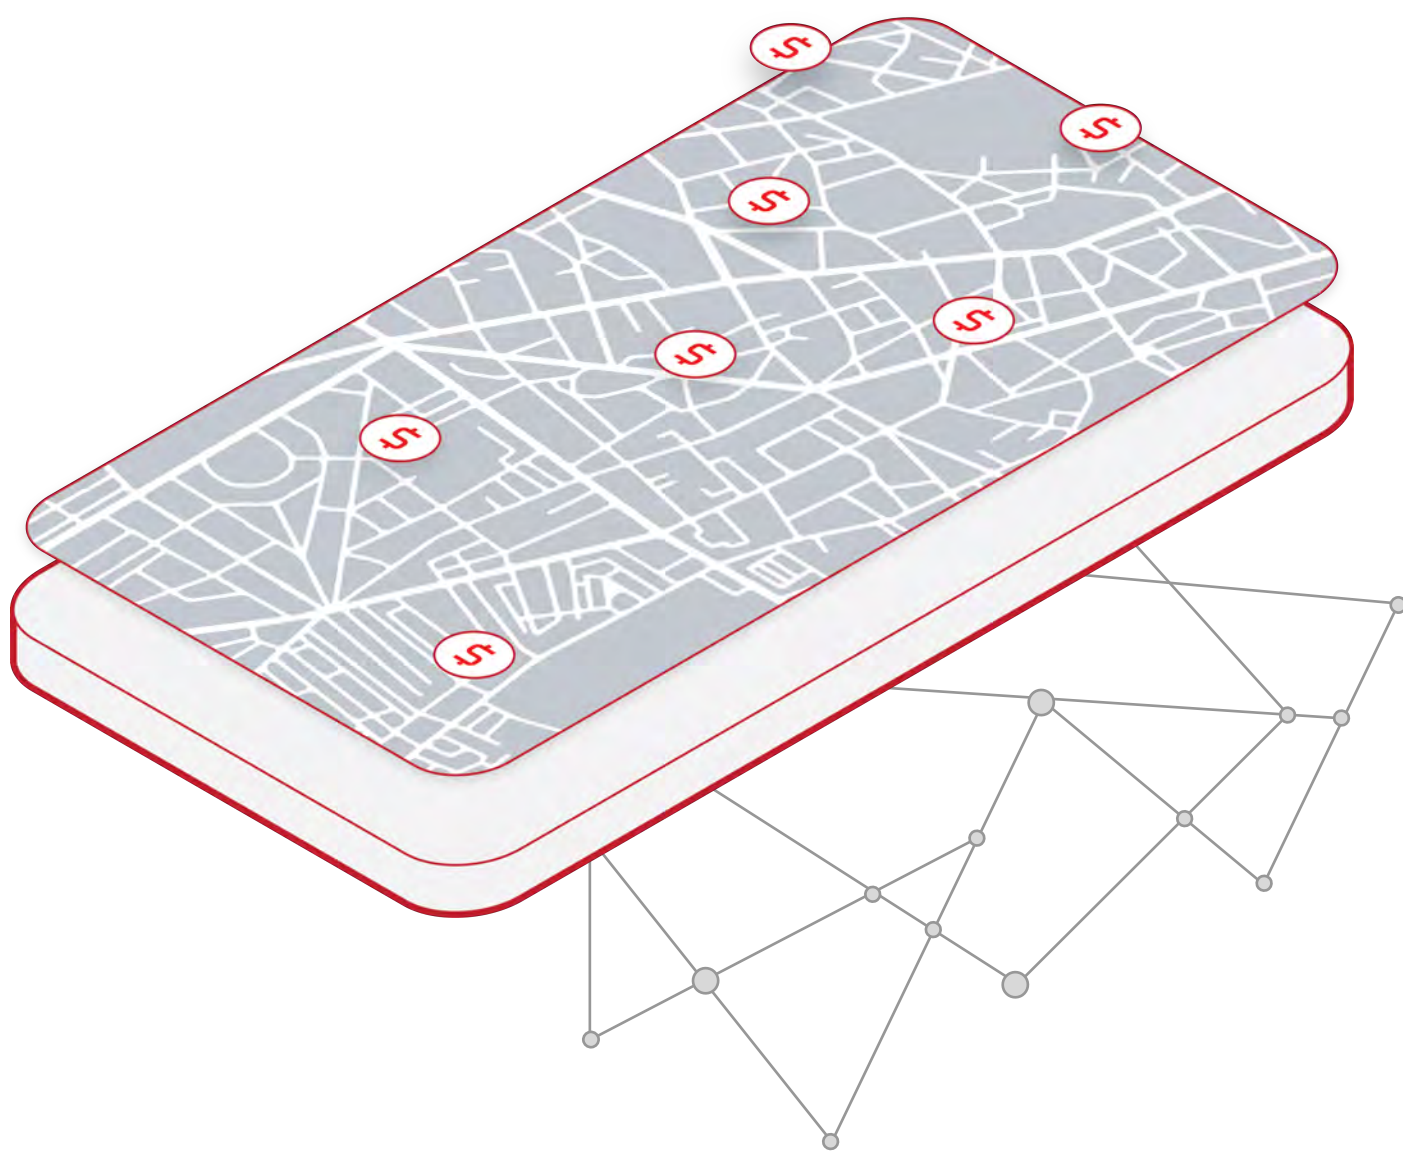

Our top priority is easy reading.

Focus on addressing problems, not just self-promotion.

Be confident. Avoid hesitation, beating-around-the-bush, apologizing, using qualifying language, etc.

Feel free to be funny, but never for the sake of clarity.
This is especially true in product when dealing with things like error messages.
Avoid exclamation points.

Homeowner Info that Puts You in Control

You're wasting your time with subpar prospects. DataGrid gives you reliable sales intelligence and homeowner information, so you can go exactly where the deals are.

Get started

Welcome to insight-driven growth.

DataGrid is a map overlay that gives you dozens of crucial data points on homes in an assigned area. It's the best tool for maximizing canvassing efforts because it gives you accurate, actionable data.

What defines your ideal buyer? Income? Homeowner status? Credit score? Whatever your needs, DataGrid allows you to target high propensity buyers by giving you actionable information for every home.

Autopopulate Homes

Pins automatically appear over homes and are ready to be dispositioned by your sales reps.

Control the Data

Draw out an area and assign it to the reps and the app will automatically fill in the homeowner information.

Call and Text from the App

We provide you with the homeowner's cell info, so you can text or call them directly from the app.

Accelerate with Precision Selling

Filter out the Fluff

Do you prefer owners to renters? Do you perform strongly with new buyers? We display over 30 different data points and they're all filterable. Go through the list, build your ideal prospect, and then block out everyone else.

Tailored Conversations

The more you know about your prospect, the more you can help them. Give smarter pitches by building them around strategic selling points. You'll have greater success during the sale and have stronger customer advocates.

Market Intelligence

If you're looking to build a new office, open a new state, or strategically expand, use DataGrid to gather geographic consumer intelligence and position your expansion in high-opportunity markets.
